

27 PROPS & HANDOUTS — SESSION 3

Click any item below to open it. Print the full page as a PDF using the button below.

Maps & Drawings

Documents

Player Moments

Ironbell Tannery — Combat Layout (Scene 3)

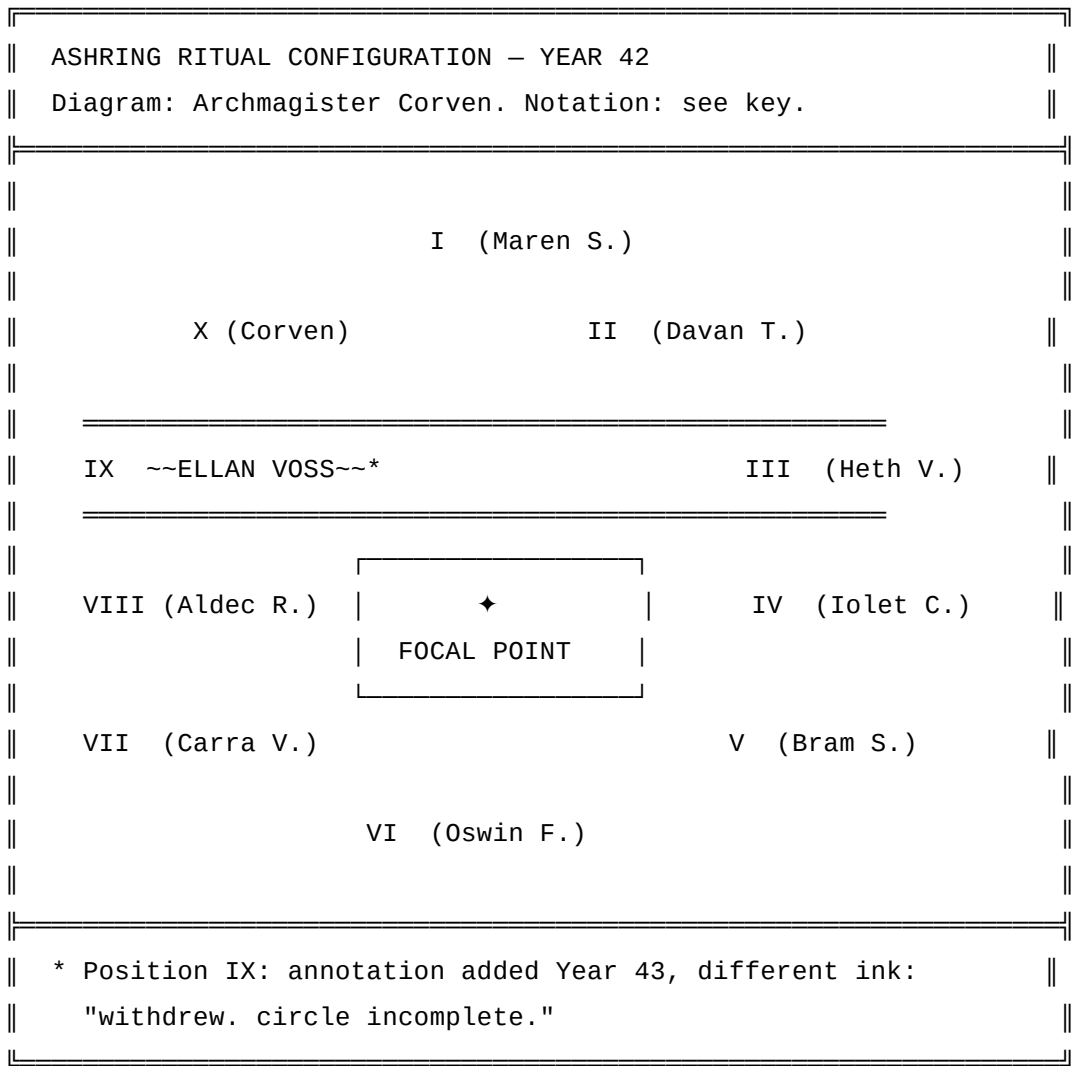

GM reference for the tannery ambush. Show to players at start of combat or describe verbally.

IRONBELL TANNERY — GROUND FLOOR	SCALE: 1:25
Approx. 40ft × 30ft. Low ceiling. One amber lamp.
[LANE DOOR ← WEST] ← players enter here
[TANNING VATS ×3] [AMBER LAMP — center]
Acid solution, 3ft deep Only light source
Shove → 2d6 acid/turn
[HANGING HIDES on racks] — soft cover, diff. terr.
[BARRELS of tanbark ×4] — can be pushed/stacked
[SERA — back wall, crossbow]
[WINDOW — shuttered, east wall]
↑ reinforcement enters here (2 failures only)
[REAR LOADING HATCH — ground level, back wall]
↑ Maerin Voss enters here, post-combat
STARTING POSITIONS
— 3 The Returned (ghasts): outside lane, enter on signal
— 2 The Returned: already inside, [N] and [S] of vats
— Dusk Priest: inside, near vats, concealed in dim light

Ashring — Ritual Circle Diagram (Scene 4 / player handout)

Found in the box from Session 2 (with the cryptic documents and ritual drawings). Players already have this. It shows 10 positions. Position IX is crossed out — added in a different hand, different ink.

Hand this to players when they work on the Scene 4 puzzle, or remind them they already have it.

The names at positions I-VIII and X require DC 14 History to read (old Varenhold script). GM may reveal them at their discretion — none are currently active NPCs.

Position IX is clearly legible in both old and modern script — whoever added the annotation wrote the name plainly, as a record.

With all three Notation Key fragments, players can decode the two lines of Corven's cipher at the bottom of the original diagram (if they have the ritual-notation-prop). The decoded content names the Inversion path.

